

Accelerating Experience

UK's Leading Management Consultants Awards 2020

We're delighted to announce that Accelerating Experience has been included in this year's FT UK's Leading Management Consultants Awards featuring in two categories:

- People and Performance and
- Organisation and Change.

These Awards are based on both client and peer recommendations, so we are especially gratified to receive this news for the second year running. We'd like to thank everyone who's been part of this shared success.

We are very encouraged because they prove that what we do has prompted Clients to endorse the benefits we bring and request our support in additional assignments.

Resolution of the Brexit stalemate (with the passing of the Withdrawal Act of Parliament being completed currently) hopefully will afford senior leaders the opportunity to plan with greater certainty, taking a more strategic commercial approach, breaking out of the low-level management behaviours than have been seen in recent times.

Creating high performing Executive teams and organisations makes the difference, especially in finding new ways to grasp market opportunities, getting the best out of all their people. That's what we do.

It's a business winning strategy for all organisations with a huge prize.

Accelerating Experience is a multi award-winning Business Performance and Leadership Consultancy.
